MARKETING AND FARE PRODUCT UPDATE - MAY 27, 2009

FUEL SURCHARGE ADJUSTMENT – EFFECTIVE MAY 29, 2009

Swiss International Air Lines will adjust the current fuel surcharge on select fares for travel and ticketing effective May 29, 2009. Please see summary below for your information.

Effective for travel and ticketing May 29, 2009:

Long haul transatlantic flights connecting to Germany (status quo) USD 90.00 one way

Long haul transatlantic flights to Switzerland and rest of Europe (status quo) USD 112.00 one way

Long haul transatlantic flights connecting to all long haul flights beyond Switzerland, including Tel Aviv USD 140.00 one way

No charges apply to domestic USA and Switzerland segments.

This surcharge will auto-price in your GDS as of May 29, 2009. For manual faring, please collect the surcharge in the tax field with the two-letter designator YR.

Thank you for your continued support of SWISS.

Sincerely,
